

Sirs, We thought that emergency communications were bad during the 911 incident... This BPL will destroy all UHF/VHF emergency communications. I have listened to audio and video of BPL. It is terrible. For this to be pushed through without further study would be totally negligent on the agencies part. IF Electric providers want to get into the internet game... allow them to string fiber optic cable. They own most of the transmission poles anyway. Thanks for your consideration